To the applicant:

This form is provided for you to comment on your reasons for wanting to study at Janet Clarke Hall. It is intended to be confidential between yourself and the College, and will be held strictly in accordance with current privacy legislation. I would be grateful if you would tell the College something about who you are, why you wish to live in residence and where you might see yourself as heading in the course of the next few years. Wherever possible if relevant, I would be grateful if you would also indicate any matters (special dietary needs, etc.) which might assist the College in providing the best possible learning and living environment for you.

With many thanks for your assistance

Dr Damian Powell
Principal
