1. Please note that multiple scholarships may be held by the successful applicant together with University and other external scholarships.
2. Minor scholarships (up to $5,000 towards College fees) are offered by the College on the basis of demonstrated academic achievement and/ or community service. New students will be considered automatically for these scholarships, which will be offered after Major Scholarships have been awarded (allowing the College to consider demonstrated financial need as its highest priority).
3. Major scholarships (from $5,000 to $20,000) are offered by the College on the basis of demonstrated financial need through the College's bursary application form.

 College Major and Minor Scholarships ($2,000 to $20,000): up to 25 awarded annually towards residential fees, to new and returning students on the basis of demonstrated financial need, academic merit, and community service.

 Indigenous Scholarship ($15,000): awarded annually towards residential fees, to a new or returning student with focus on biomedicine or science leading to a graduate medical degree.

 Country Scholarships ($3,000 to $20,000): up to 20 awarded annually towards residential fees, to new and returning students from country Victoria on the basis of demonstrated financial need, academic merit, and community service.

 First in Family Scholarships ($10,000): up to 3 awarded annually towards residential fees, to students who are the first in their family to attend University.

 Music Scholarships (up to $20,000): up to 3 awarded annually towards residential fees, to students studying in a Music degree.

 Women's Scholarships ($5,000 to $20,000): up to 15 awarded annually towards residential fees, to new and returning female undergraduate students on the basis of demonstrated financial need, academic merit, and community service.

 Service Scholarships (up to $10,000): 2 awarded annually towards residential fees, to new and returning students with particular regard to community service.
