As a university college within the finest collegiate traditions, Janet Clarke Hall expects that all of its members display:

- Academic Integrity including scholarly commitment and a willingness to engage in intellectual enquiry and debate.
- Respect and Responsibility towards heritage and the shared environment. Consideration and Respect for others within and beyond the College community.
- Responsibility and a Sense of Social Service, including awareness of the privilege of living and studying within a collegiate environment.

It is expected that all Janet Clarke Hall students will:

- Pursue their studies to the best of their ability.
- Abide by the terms and conditions of residence outlined in the College handbook.
- Contribute to the upkeep of the building and grounds through participation in the Student Work Scheme
- Respect the authority of College officers and obey their reasonable requests.
- Respect and support other members of the college and the wider community, in return for their respect and support.
- Respect the property of others and all communal property. Contribute to a clean and healthy living environment and ensure the return of all crockery, cutlery and glasses to the Dining Hall.
- Contribute, to the best of their ability, to the community, sporting and cultural life of the College while doing justice to their academic aspirations.
- Conduct themselves in a responsible manner and refrain from all forms of offensive and anti-social behaviour.
- Take responsibility for their own conduct under all circumstances and accept being held accountable, taking immediate action to correct any mistake.
